1 for ~~AMUTS~~?

2 Mr. Sarno. I think from December, 1961 or January, 1962
3 to September, 1967. Then from June -- August, 1968 to 4 September, 1969.

5 Mr. Wides. Now let me go back, and can you give us a
6 very brief summary of your positions with the Agency prior to
7 that? I don't mean detailed as to what you were doing.

8 Mr. Sarno. I joined the Agency in September of 1951.

9 Mr. Wides. Yes?

10 Mr. Sarno. I was assigned to three countries before I
11 hit Florida.

12 Mr. Wides. All in the Western Hemisphere Division?

13 Mr. Sarno. All in the Western Hemisphere.

14 Mr. Wides. So you had rather long stations in each of 15 those, three or four years?

16 Mr. Sarno. (Nods in the affirmative)

17 Mr. DeMarco. When did you become an American citizen?

18 Mr. Sarno. I was born in Ohio.

19 Mr. DeMarco. Had you been stationed with Mr. Phillips
20 in Cuba before you came to Miami, or were you in Cuba before
21 you came to Miami?

22 Mr. Sarno. Yes.

23 Mr. Wides. And that is when ~~Mr. Noel~~ was the Chief?

24 Mr. Sarno. ~~Jim Noel~~ was the Chief.

25 Mr. Wides. And you had contact with Mr. Phillips then?

1 Mr. Wides. You never heard of any plots nor of any
2 arrested people attempting to shoot a bazooka when he was
3 giving a speech at Havana Stadium?

4 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

5 Mr. Wides. Let me go to the period when you went to 6 Florida.

7 When you first came here, that was before Station Chief
8 Noel had moved the whole station to Miami?

9 Mr. Sarno. Noel wasn't there. When I arrived in Florida,
10 Noel was not then -- no, sir, he was not the station chief.

11 Mr. Wides. Who was the station chief?

12 Mr. Sarno. I don't think I should give you his name.
13 I don't know. YOU have the rest of all of them, but I can't 14 recall --

15 I can state that there were two station chiefs between 16 Noel and Shackley, three of them, in fact.

17 Mr. Wides. Shackley came in when, 1963?

18 Mr. Sarno. '62.

19 Mr. Wides. When in '62?

20 Mr. Sarno. I think the spring of '62 is when it was.

21 Mr. Wides. When was he replaced by Mr. Dimmer?

22 Mr. Sarno. If I am not mistaken, it was in '64, I think.
23 June, July, I think, something like that, of '64.

24 Mr. Wides. And then Mr. Dimmer was replaced in '66 by 25 Mr. Hines, Paul Hines?

1 Mr. Sarno. ~~Hines.~~

2 Mr. Wides. And then Mr. Esterline replaced Mr. ~~Hines~~,
3 or was there someone between?

4 Mr. Sarno. Mr. Esterline did not replace Mr. ~~Hines~~.
5 Nobody replaced ~~Hines~~, because they closed up the station.

6 Mr. Wides. We understand that the station was operating
7 very recently.

8 Mr. Sarno. Well, I'm not saying -- you see, the station
9 you spoke to before, you spoke of, went out of business in 10 June of 1960 when Mr. ~~Hines~~ left.

11 Mr. Wides. I see.

12 Now, what was the relationship between yourself and the 13 station? Administratively, and in terms of reporting, when 14 you first went down there.

15 Mr. Sarno. When I first went down there, I was outside.
16 I believe it was concerning clearances to get me into the 17 station, because I had never been working in a station before,
18 so there were special clearances. So at that time, those two 19 months you're speaking of, I attended a course and I may have 20 been sent out once or twice to interview a Cuban refugee or 21 one of our agents who had left Cuba.

22 Mr. Wides. And then you set up the ~~AMUTS~~ program? Did
23 you start that project, or was that started when you came in?

24 Mr. Sarno. It had been started, the nucleus had been
25 formed at that time.

1 Mr. Wides. And except where there's a question of an
2 agent under cover who would be possibly exposed to harm or
3 that kind of thing in regard to the mention of other Agency
4 people, certainly at the level of Mr. Shackley or other
5 officials, Mr. Dimmer, and so forth, that the general procedures
6 have been that people at the Agency or retirees have not
7 refused to disclose names.

8 Now, you certainly have your rights --

9 Mr. Sarno. No, sir. I am not questioning you, or anything,
10 except I've been in this business a long time and I've never
11 mentioned anybody's name. Now if somebody were to tell me,
12 if Seymour Bolton were to tell me that I could tell you all the 13 names of all my supervisors and everything, it's perfectly all
14 right. But I've never mentioned a name and I feel that I
15 shouldn't mention a name.

16 Mr. Wides. Well, we may have to take a break and do that, 17 but let me go on.

18 With regard to the ~~AMOTS~~ program, the ~~AMOTS~~ Cubans were 19 not contract agents of the station, is that correct?

20 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

21 Mr. Wides. They were proprietary employees essentially of 22 ~~LASER~~, essentially?

23 Mr. Sarno. ~~LASER~~ was a group -- that proprietary was 24 set up in September of 1968. Prior to that time they were a
25 bunch of Cubans just living down in Miami.

1 Mr. Wides. And what was their relationship to the Agency
2 through you?

3 Mr. Sarno. They were a group of Cuban exiles who were
4 being funded to collect information, intelligence information,
5 on Cuba.

6 Mr. Wides.. They were paid agents?

7 Mr. Sarno. They were paid agents.

8 Mr. Wides. Some of them received a fairly sophisticated
9 training in tradecraft, in some cases communications Intercept
10 operations with regard to a station in Florida, and so forth,
11 is that not correct?

12 Mr. Sarno. Sophisticated equipment, yes, sir.

13 Mr. Wides. And tradecraft, general tradecraft training?

14 Mr. Sarno. General tradecraft training, yes, sir.
15 Communications training -- well, most of them weren't
16 communicators, so they required very little if they did
17 receive training.

18 Mr. Wides. Would that put them in a little bit more
19 official status of some sort, whatever the category is called,
20 than simply being a paid informant?

21 Mr. Sarno. No, sir. They were just like paid informants
22 except we provided them funds to operate with.

23 They are no more -- they are not contract, we did not
24 have them under contract.

25 Mr. Wides. But they would still get training?

1 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

2 Mr. Wides. And the program first operated where? Where
3 did you physically locate? Were you at the University of 4 Miami, at the Naval Air Station at the beginning?

5 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

6 Mr. Wides. Where were you at first?

7 Mr. Sarno. Are you speaking of our station? Our station
8 was physically at the Air Station, but these Cubans did not
9 know where the station was.

10 Mr. Wides. And you just contacted them separately?

11 Mr. Sarno. They had houses that they rented and they worked
12 out of different houses, and there were many of them, so I
13 can't recall them.

14 Mr. Wides. Did you have an office facility apart from the 15 station?

16 Mr. Sarno. Myself?

17 Mr. Wides. Yes.

18 Mr. Sarno. On one occasion, for a very short period, I
19 had an office.

20 Mr. Wides. Where was the Zenith Corporation?

21 Mr. Sarno. The Zenith Corporation was located on the 22 south campus of Miami.

23 Mr. Wides. Apart from the station?

24 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

25 Mr. Wides. That was a cover?

1 Mr. Sarno. That was the station.

2 Mr. Wides. And what was the mission and purpose of
3 ~~AMOTS~~ when you first started out, as indicated in the project
4 outline?

5 Mr. Sarno. They were to collect intelligence on Cuba,
6 debrief refugees and provide bodies for any possible operations
7 required by the station.

8 Mr. Wides. They were to debrief refugees?

9 Mr. Sarno. Debrief refugees, collect and evaluate, maintain
10 records.

11 Mr. Wides. Was there a division of the ~~AMOTS~~ members into
12 two groups, with only a small group involving the debriefing
13 of Cuban refugees?

14 Mr. Sarno. Well, it wasn't too small a group, but if you
15 would speak of the whole organization overall, yes, it was a
16 small group.

17 Mr. Wides. And at what point did you set up any cover
18 apart from the station as a proprietary or notional company,
19 in between the ~~AMOTS~~ people and the Miami station? In other
20 words, were the companies prior to the Latin America ~~social~~
21 ~~and economic research~~ company that preceeded it, in time?

22 Mr. Sarno. In the time that I handled them, which is 23 up to the ~~LASER~~, I think there were three, three covers all
24 told, or perhaps four. I think we had our debriefing, you
25 know, under one cover.

1 Mr. Wides. That was from the start? You had a separate
2 cover for the debriefing?

3 Mr. Sarno. Well, from the start we didn't have a place
4 for them, and it wasn't pulled together as a debriefing unit.
5 When a large flow of refugees started to come in is when we set
6 up the special unit.

7 Mr. Wides. When was that?

8 Mr. Sarno. Well, they cut off --

9 Mr. Wides. '64, '63?

10 Mr. Sarno. It could have been '62, late '62 or '63. And 11 before, we used to send our debriefers, they were within the 12 ~~AMUTS~~ group, specialists in debriefing, area specialists is 13 the kind we used. And we would go out to the reception center
14 and check around and see who had come out of the particular 15 area.

16 Mr. Wides. At Opa-Locka?

17 Mr. Sarno. At Opa-Locka.

18 And our debriefers would go out and check around with the 19 people who came in and try to spot somebody who would be 20 interesting to interview, debrief, concerning the particular
21 area. And so they usually picked them up in a car and either
22 took them to a restaurant or took them to a motel or something
23 and would debrief them. And then we found that it would be
24 better to get a building for them to be in where we located
25 them altogether, where they could prepare their reports and

1 everything.

2 Mr. Wides. And so that's when you first set up the
3 proprietary for the smaller debriefing component of ~~AMOTS~~

4 Mr. Sarno. Well, I set up the proprietaries, the notional
5 company for a small debriefing office, and at the same time,
6 we rented a building, a larger building, and they used to
7 operate in Coral Gables, received some publicity and we moved
8 them out of Coral Gables to near the airport in a building where 9 the main office was, where this main office was, where these 10 reports from the debriefers or any other information was 11 collected would be processed, typed in finished form, translated
12 and provided to us.

13 Mr. Wides. About how many people did you have in ~~AMOTS~~
14 Cubans at that time?

15 Mr. Sarno. Well, that's difficult to say.

16 Mr. Wides. 150? Would you say 150?

17 Mr. Sarno. I would say inside, outside, it could be 18 close to 150.

19 Mr. Wides. Did you have more than a dozen or so working
20 in the component on debriefing?

21 Mr. Sarno. As I recall, at one time -- as I recall it,
22 we had about 22, 23 people working in debriefing.

23 Mr. Wides. And apart from those Cubans, you had a staff
24 under you of assistants and secretaries who were Agency
25 assigned personnel?

1 Mr. Sarno. Yes.

2 Mr. Wides. What kind of staff did you have?

3 Mr. Sarno. Well, it started off originally since we
4 weren't big, I started off with one secretary, and it eventually
5 ended up that there were one or two Intel assistants --

6 Mr. Wides. These were Agency personnel?

7 Mr. Sarno. Agency personnel.

8 --and two or three case officers.

9 Mr. Wides. The case officers handled segments of the

10 ~~AMOTS?~~

11 Mr. Sarno. Segments of the ~~AMOTS~~

12 Mr. Wides. Now, the other, speaking very roughly, hundred
13 and fifty or so ~~AMOTS~~ Cubans, you said some twenty were 14 involved when the debriefing program intensified. What were 15 the other hundred-odd Cubans involved in?

16 Mr. Sarno. Well, we had records personnel, we had 17 I would say six or seven who only worked in records and main-
18 taining of files, and general index cards, and that was it.
19 Then we had what we called our reports section which may have
20 had about fifteen people, twenty people, who wrote reports,
21 checked them out, cross-referenced, and everything else that 22 was involved in that.

23 Mr. Wides. What kind of reports did they write? What 24 were they writing reports about?

25 Mr. Sarno. Economic -- whatever they were learning from

1 against Cuba, and had weapons they weren't supposed to have.

2 Mr. Wides. Like Alpha-66?

3 Mr. Sarno. Alpha-66, there were many of them.

4 And we usually had one of our outside types, either
5 recruit or get next to an individual of the group and he would
6 penetrate the group himself to report to us what they were 7 doing.

8 Mr. Wides. Do you recall the flights of the Diaz, or one
9 of the Diz brothers, over Havana dropping leaflets?

10 Mr. Sarno. What date was it?

11 Mr. Wides. I believe it was quite early, and it was not
12 in connection with the ~~AMOTS~~.

13 Mr. Sarno. I know the Diaz brothers.

14 Mr. Wides. Do you recall hearing of flights with -- one
15 of them with Frank Sturgis over Havana dropping leaflets?

16 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

17 Mr. Wides. It was fairly widely known.

18 Mr. Sarno. Well, I didn't get into Cubans until maybe
19 it was June of '60, but the only leaflets I ever saw fly over
20 Cuba was the day before the invasion. Those were the only 21 ones I saw.

22 Mr. Wides. When you were in Miami, did you have any 23 contact with Frank Sturgis, Frank Fiorini?

24 Mr. Sarno. Never, never. To my knowledge, he never worked 25 for us.

1 Mr. Wides. Not getting back to the bulk of the ~~AMOTS~~

3 to keep tabs, which I guess is a summary of what you are
4 saying on what exile groups might be doing that the government
5 might otherwise not know about, is it correct that there was
6 surveillance of the Miami community generally with regard to
7 possible Castro agents?

8 Mr. Sarno. Not that I know of.

9 Mr. Wides. There was no counterintelligence program in 10 the ~~AMOTS~~?

11 Mr. Sarno. We had a counterintelligence component in the 12 ~~AMOTS~~ Program.

13 Mr. Wides. Why don't you describe that?

14 Mr. Sarno. The counterintelligence program consisted of 15 very capable Cubans who knew of the former -- the set-up of 16 the intelligence agency inside of Cuba, so if anybody were to 17 come out, any refugee were to come out and name an individual
18 that was a friend of theirs that we knew or suspected of 19 working for the internal security which was the DSE or their 20 external service, the DGI, our counterintelligence group or 21 one of the individuals would go out and debrief the fellow
22 and collect names, and prepare reports on it, and they maintained
23 files, and that is what it is.

24 They never got under a surveillance of any of them, because
25 once a report was written they suspected somebody. They maintained

2 would receive lists of names to check in their files, and if
3 they suspected one, then they would gather all of the 4 information possible on this individual, prepare a report,
5 name their sources, and they would pass it to the station.
6 The station in turn would prepare a memorandum and send it to 7 the bureau.

8 Mr. Wides. Is it your sworn testimony that you never knew
9 of any surveillances or efforts to penetrate groups for 10 counterintelligence purposes by Cubans under your supervision?

11 Mr. Sarno. No, sir, no. You're speaking of penetrating
12 groups, yes. They penetrated groups. Surveillance -- I never 13 sent them out on a mission to surveil anybody concerning whether 14 they were suspect or whatever.

15 Mr. Wides. Was there any surveillance of Cubans in Miami
16 conducted by -- whether it was in cooperation with the Bureau
17 or not -- conducted by any of the ~~AMOTS~~ Cubans that you were 18 aware of?

19 Mr. Sarno. I cannot recall if there ever was.

20 Mr. Wides. I don't mean a specific one.

21 Mr. Sarno. I don't recall ever giving them any assignments.

22 Mr. Wides. I'm not talking about assignments, I'm 23 talking about whether you're aware of their conducting --

24 Mr. Sarno. As I say, I do not recall them conducting
25 any surveillance on anybody.

1 Mr. Wides. Any telephone taps?

2 Mr. Sarno. Never any telephone taps, we didn't have
3 telephone tap capability.

4 Mr. Wides. Any photography?

5 Mr. Sarno. We had a photographer.

6 Mr. Wides. When was he used? In what circumstances?

7 Mr. Sarno. Well, the biggest majority of his work was 8 to copy certain documents.

9 Mr. Wides. I mean photographic surveillance.

10 Mr. Sarno. There may have been. I really can't state
11 which one he was used on if he was ever used for photographic
12 surveillance.

13 Mr. Wides. Which what he was used on?

14 Mr. Sarno. I mean if he was used on photographic
15 surveillance. I don't recall ever ordering him out on photo-
16 graphic surveillance.

17 Mr. Wides. Do you recall if there ever was any photo-
18 graphic surveillance carried out by any of the ~~AMOTS~~?

19 Mr. Sarno. I have no recollection. I do not recall.

20 Mr. Wides. Were you getting reports of any sort, whether
21 you would characterize it as surveillance or not, on people
22 who had already come and were in Miami as distinct from the 23 interview reports when the refugees first came?

24 Isn't it correct that the ~~AMOTS~~ personnel were providing

1 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

2 Mr. Wides. Would you describe that program?

3 Mr. Sarno. Certainly. As I said, they penetrated these
4 groups, they would go around and then they would sit and talk
5 and as you would call it, the surveillance, the fact that they
6 penetrated, they would sit at the table and report on the 7 individual and what the individual said and what they were
8 planning. We call it penetration.

9 To me, surveillance is to put two men on the street
10 following somebody from one place to another.

11 Mr. Wides. Were there ever occasions when the station
12 was suspicious as to whether Cubans in Miami might be Castro
13 agents that you were aware of?

14 Mr. Sarno. Many.

15 Mr. Wides. Did they ever ask for any assistance in the 16 ~~AMOTS~~ group in trying to keep tabs on those individuals or 17 to test their suspicions?

18 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

19 Mr. Wides. Who would do that?

20 Mr. Sarno. It would be the CI section of the station.

21 Mr. Wides. You don't recall any situation in which -

22 Mr. Sarno. In which ~~AMOTS~~ participated? No, sir.

5 Mr. Sarno. No, just interview. They never used them to 6 run a man on the street or anything like that, no, sir.
7 They tried to get one individual one time and they didn't know
8 that he worked for us and they tried to hire him and he came 9 back and reported it. We had to advise them that he was 10 already working for us.

11 Mr. Wides. And you had 115 men and all---

12 Mr. Sarno. There were women also, sir.

13 Mr. Wides. And women, and all they were doing was 14 interviewing refugees and writing reports on exile potential
15 activities against Cuba?

16 Mr. Sarno. I would say that was the biggest majority of 17 their job.

18 Mr. Wides. What was the rest of it?

19 Mr. Sarno. They also went out, if our station was going
20 to run an operation and they needed X amount of bodies, certain
21 specialized personnel, the ~~AMUTS~~ would go and locate the 22 personnel, talk to them, spot them, get their personal history
23 from them, send it in, and the people would be traced out and
24 checked and cleared and eventually introduced to the station
25 case officer who would use them in our operations.

1 Mr. Wides. Who arranged for the training at the training
2 station at ~~Barrett~~ (?), was that used?

3 Mr. Sarno. For whom?

4 Mr. Wides. When the ~~AMOTS~~ people received training, some
5 various kind of tradecraft, who would arrange that, yourself?

6 Mr. Sarno. December, 1961 when I took it over there were
7 only three cases of ~~AMOTS~~ who were sent away for special
8 training. Three cases, three individuals.

9 One came here to Washington, the other was going to be
10 loaned to a station overseas. He came up and received training.
11 The majority of the training given to the ~~AMOTS~~ was down in 12 Miami, Florida.

13 Mr. Wides. And what kind was that?

14 Mr. Sarno. Basic tradecraft, reports writing --

15 Mr. Wides. Did they ever get training in surveillance?

16 Mr. Sarno. Yes, they received training in surveillance.

17 Mr. Wides. Why did they get that?

18 Mr. Sarno. Well, that is part of their program of 19 training them as a group.

20 Mr. Wides. Even though there was no use of them for 21 surveillance purposes?

22 Mr. Sarno. I do not recall, sir, ever sending them out
23 on a surveillance.

24 Mr. DeMarco. Who conducted the training?

25 Mr. Sarno. Our Training Branch, personnel from our

2 Mr. DeMarco. From Washington?

3 Mr. Sarno. Yes.

4 Mr. Wides. You say the majority of the training was in
5 Florida. What period are we talking about, throughout the 6 period?

7 Mr. Sarno. It could be spread over. Reports writing,
8 for instance, when the Agency, or when the station was being 9 cut back in personnel, this group used to produce tons of 10 reports, and when our station was being cut, the staff was 11 being cut, I convinced the Chief of Station into having the 12 reports officers, for instance, trained to prepare reports
13 which would require very little editing or preparation once
14 it arrived in the station, which would take a load off the 15 station, and it was agreed to.

16 Mr. Wides. You arranged in general for the training or 17 the training office?

18 Mr. Sarno. I never trained.

19 Mr. Wides. But they worked through you administratively?

20 Mr. Sarno. Yes.

21 Mr. Wides. So you were familiar with all the training
22 ~~Ames~~ personnel would have got?

23 Mr. Sarno. I would say all of the training that they

2 Mr. Sarno. Yes. Some of the people would move, they got
3 a job that paid them more, but there were very few that came
4 in after the original, say about 1964 I would say it was well
5 established and very few dropped out or were taken aboard there-

7 Mr. Wides. They all got what you referred to earlier as 8 basic tradecraft training?

9 Mr. Sarno. No, not all of them.

10 Mr. Wides. How many?

11 Mr. Sarno. There were very few of them in the original
12 group. I never had them trained in basic tradecraft. The 13 original group which I took over which, if I am not mistaken,
14 was about eighteen of them, and I understand that prior to 15 the Bay of Pigs --

16 Mr. Wides. Eighteen in ~~AMOTS~~ or eighteen in training?

17 Mr. Sarno. Eighteen in ~~AMOTS~~ all told.

18 I understood that prior to the Bay of Pigs these ~~AMOTS~~
19 had been given basic tradecraft training. I never once sent 20 them out to receive basic tradecraft training.

21 Mr. Wides. After you came -- when you came there were 22 eighteen ~~AMOTS~~ and eventually we're talking about 150, roughly,

24 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

25 Mr. Wides. And you never knew of any of the people who

2 Mr. Sarno. No, sir, no, sir.

3 Mr. Wides. And to your knowledge it was only report

5 Mr. Sarno. Well, they trained them in each one of the 6 sections, and I didn't train the debriefers, so if a new man
7 was hired and he was put in a debriefing, he was trained u
8 usually by the Chief of the Debriefing Group, he was put in 9 there to work along with other debriefers to catch onto the 10 thing.

11 Mr. Wides. Now your testimony with regard to surveillance
12 training, who issued that, or how many people?

13 Mr. Sarno. If I am not mistaken, it was four or five.

14 Mr. Wides. When you first came, or shortly thereafter?

15 Mr. Sarno. Yes, it was all at the -- now, now, just one
16 second, because I went in surveillance training myself.

17 I don't recall whether this four or five whom we trained
18 in surveillance were trained while I had them or they were 19 trained before I took them.

20 Mr. Wides. Now after that, those four or five, no other

20 Mr. Sarno. They were originally under my supervision,
21 and later the station brought an individual down from Head-

2 Mr. Wides. Until roughly?

3 Mr. Sarno. Until roughly the arrival of Mr. ~~Dimmer~~. You
4 have the date there. I think Mr. ~~Dimmer's~~ the one who brought
5 down the fellow from Headquarters.

6 Mr. Wides. And these people received some training
7 regarding the use of ~~intercept~~ equipment even if they had
8 some experience as radio operators, isn't that true?

9 Mr. Sarno. Sir, I really don't know.

10 I know that I never brought an instructor down to train
11 them in the use of radio equipment. These individuals had 12 worked in this work in Cuba before they came out --

13 Mr. Wides. In ~~intercept~~ work like this?

14 Mr. Sarno. In ~~intercept~~ work, yes. We had two very 15 brilliant fellows who were the top people in the communications
16 field in Cuba.

17 And most of the radio operators had had up to twenty 18 years experience, they were elderly people, and they had been 19 in radio and they could read and they could send it out very 20 well.

21 Mr. Wides. So your testimony is that --

22 Mr. Sarno. I do not recall them ever having been

5 Mr. Wides. But during your administration of the ~~AMOTS~~

9 Mr. Wides. Do you recall any cooperation of the ~~AMOTS~~

12 Castro agents?

13 Mr. Sarno. No, sir, they never did.

14 Mr. Wides. ~~AMOTS~~ was not involved in that?

15 Mr. Sarno. No, I never heard of any. You must remember
16 that when Dimmer came down and brought the fellow, I never saw
17 the traffic anymore, but during the period that I was looking
18 at the traffic, and I was directing that special intercept
19 group as part of the ~~AMOTS~~, I never once gave them an order
20 and never saw any that they did.

21 Mr. Wides. When Mr. Shackley was the station chief, did

4 Mr. Wides. Up til '67?

5 Mr. Sarno. Through '67. Well, let's see, now. No, sir.
6 Well, it was, because later they made the ~~AMOTS~~ group, it
7 became a branch, and they brought in a very senior officer to
8 be the Branch Chief, and I was considered the Deputy Branch
9 Chief. Mr. Dimmer brought in the senior officer.

7 Mr. Sarno. When I came out of Cuba, when I escaped from
8 Cuba, I was brought up here to Headquarters and debriefed, so
9 I imagine that the person that debriefed me, this is in July

5 discussed an operation. I met him at a party, and that was all.

6 Mr. Wides. And when you came to Washington what kind of

10 I do not specifically recall ever being called to Washington to 11 discuss ~~AMOTS~~.

12 Mr. Wides. But do you recall ever discussing the ~~AMOTS~~
13 program and the Cubans in it while you were in Washington?

14 Mr. Sarno. Well, if I would come up on a trip and some of 15 the people who were sitting on a desk here who were maintaining 16 the records and everything of the ~~AMOTS~~, I suppose, yes, they 17 would come around and discuss perhaps the budget or perhaps
18 get them to report in a different manner. I recall on one
19 occasion discussing the set-up of how the ~~AMOTS~~ group prepared
20 the debriefing reports, that they could remove the names from

6 Mr. Wides. Was he in Miami?

7 Mr. Sarno. No, Mr. Esterline was on the staff he -- I
8 don't know whether it was on the staff of the Task Force or 9 who at that time, but I knew Mr. Esterline, first from his 10 visits. I first met Mr. Esterline when he came to Miami in

3 Mr. Wides. Anyplace on the West Coast or the Southwest?

4 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

5 Mr. Wides. Boston?

6 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

7 Mr. Wides. So you only recall persons who had been in

8 ~~AMUTS~~ telling -- why don't we refer to him as [REDACTED] ~~RE~~
9 that they were going to another city as being New York and

10 San Juan?

11 Mr. Sarno. New York and San Juan are the only two I ever
12 recall they ever had any ~~AMUTS~~ or ex-~~AMUTS~~ or people that had 13 been in the organization went.

14 Mr. Wides. Now when they went and they recruited other
15 people, was that [REDACTED] suggestion or under his supervision?

16 Mr. Sarno. They usually collected a group around people
17 that they trusted.

18 Mr. Wides. Was that up to [REDACTED] supervision and 19 direction?

20 Mr. Sarno. He directed them to do it, yes. I didn't even 21 know the individual, I never met him. It's one individual.

22 Mr. Wides. Did he speak to you about the fact that he
23 was going to do this, Mr. [REDACTED]

24 Did he consult with you on it?

25 Mr. Sarno. Well, I believe it came up -- I knew the fellow

1 was leaving, because he was taken off of the role as being in
2 Miami, and we may have discussed his being used while he was in

4 Mr. Wides. Do you recall discussing it?

5 Mr. Sarno. Well, yes, we did discuss it, obviously it
6 was discussed, because this fellow came up with a big thing
7 when they were going to bazooka the UN building.

8 Mr. Wides. Was this one of the Novo brothers -- or was 9 either of the Novo brothers in ~~AMOTS~~ in Florida? I believe
10 this is the name of the two people who were arrested at the 11 time.

12 Mr. Sarno. No, the ~~AMOT~~ that was in New York is the one
13 that discovered the plot and we informed the Bureau and the 14 Bureau moved in on it.

15 Mr. Wides. You informed the Bureau?

16 Mr. Sarno. We informed the Bureau of that shelling of 17 the UN, and it was the ~~AMOTS~~, this one ~~AMOT~~ up there who got 18 the information.

19 Mr. Wides. And he relayed that to someone in New York, or 20 back, through [redacted] to you?

21 Mr. Sarno. He relayed it to [redacted] and we -- he

3 Mr. Wides. With regard to the information received from 4 the former ~~AMOT~~ in New York about the plot to shoot a bazooka
5 at the UN, was Mr. Shackley the Station Chief at the time you
6 received that information?

7 Mr. Sarno. I don't recall the date, but the date was 8 between early '62, which it had to have been, and -- because 9 Shackley left which I think was in July of '64 and that would
10 have meant he was the Chief of Station.

11 Mr. Wides. Well, didn't he just indicate before while we 12 were taking a rbreak that you had recalled that Shackley was 13 the Station Chief?

14 Mr. Sarno. I don't recall whether he was exactly the 15 Station Chief or not. I can't place the date with what had 16 happened, so I know I went back to the Station and I reported
17 it, and it in turn was reported. Now, if I told it to Shackley
18 or if I told it to Dimmer, if I told it to the two different
19 Branch Chiefs that were there at the time, I do not recall.

20 Mr. Wides. Now would that report be in the ~~AMOTS~~ file?

21 Mr. Sarno. In the history?

22 Mr. Wides. No, in the file, the project file.

23 If we got that date when that took place, the date when

1 or would it be in some other file?

2 Mr. Sarno. I don't think that they maintain a chrono on
3 ~~AMUTS~~. It was voluminous. Once they were processed by the
4 Agency and put into our communications channel, be it by
5 dispatch or by cable, I don't think they retained all of those
6 tons of files.

7 Mr. Wides. Do you recall who the FI Branch Chief was at 8 the time?

9 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

10 If you give me a date that I know --

11 Mr. Wides. I believe it was '64.

12 Mr. Sarno. If it was early 1964, then Mr. Shackley was 13 there. If it was late 1964 when Dimmer came, then there was 14 another branch, so there were two branch chiefs.

15 Mr. Wides. Now did you relay this information, did you
16 say, to Washington, or directly to New York?

17 Mr. Sarno. Sir, I never handled communications.

18 Mr. Wides. Well, I didn't mean you --

19 Mr. Sarno. If I write it up, I give it to my branch chief,
20 and my branch chief in turn sends it out. But to me, it would 21 seem logical, knowing communications, that we would send the 22 cable directly to New York with info to Washington.

23 Mr. Wides. Were you ever told that communications had

7 Mr. Sarno. E-n-r-i-q-u-e, that is his first name.

8 I don't recall his last name.

9 Mr. DeMarco. Lazarus?

10 Mr. Sarno. No. Lazarus is not a last name.

11 Mr. Wides. How many people did he have working with him?

12 Mr. Sarno. Sir, I don't recall, but I know there was more
13 than one or two.

14 Mr. Wides. And would [redacted] give you reports that he
15 sent down to [redacted]

16 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

17 Mr. Wides. And what did the reports talk about?

18 Mr. Sarno. They were on Cuban exiles, groups, collection
19 of money, Alpha 66 and people of that group who were up in 20 New York City.

21 Mr. Wides. Was it your impression at the time that this

11 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

12 Mr. Wides. How would they decide what groups or what
13 individuals to penetrate or keep under surveillance?

14 Mr. Sarno. Well there were the active groups. This 15 fellow used to come down to Miami and he would talk to [REDACTED]
16 [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] would tell him, here is people here who 17 are talking about collecting money, about a supposed operation,
18 how much money are they getting for it --

19 Mr. Wides. Where would he get that information from, from 20 you?

21 Mr. Sarno. Get what?

22 Mr. Wides. Where would [REDACTED] get that --

23 Mr. Sarno. The MI group knew more about what was going on 24 in Cuban operations in the Miami area than we did, so most of 25 the information we obtained was through them.

1 Mr. Wides. So how would he get the information about
2 potential targets in New York?

3 Mr. Sarno. Because they had the groups down in Miami
4 penetrated, so in Miami, these groups in Miami, would discuss
5 their contacts with the splinter group sitting up in New York
6 and the information would come about.

7 Mr. Wides. You never got any written instructions or 8 oral instructions when you were in Washington or Miami to see
9 if you could arrange for this person to get information on 10 people in New York?

11 Mr. Sarno. Never. Never once.

12 Mr. Wides. What about picketing in New York by Cuban
13 personnel? There's some reference to that in testimony we've 14 already received.

15 Mr. Sarno. There is one incident of the Mexico -- I think
16 it was against Mexico, where they went to an affair or something
17 and threw out leaflets.

18 Mr. Wides. What about picketing of an airline company or 19 an airline office?

20 Mr. Sarno. I heard that that took place, but I was not
21 in Miami at the time. I was away on a trip.

1 origins of the picketing? How would it come about?

2 Mr. Sarno. Well, I don't believe it was started, I know
3 it wasn't started in ~~AMUTS~~ because one individual cannot start
4 it, but the groups, the Cuban exile groups who were located in
5 New York decided to picket it because, I believe, of Mexico's
6 relations with Cuba.

7 Mr. Wides. At this time, wasn't the Agency carrying on
8 a wide variety of operations to try and isolate Cuba economically
9 and commercially?

10 Mr. Sarno. I believe they were, yes. I was never involved
11 in any of those operations.

12 Mr. Wides. And including air traffic people, airlines
13 going to Cuba. That was one aspect of the efforts to isolate
14 Cuba.

15 Mr. Sarno. Well, the airlines going to Cuba, if I
16 can recall at that time, were not Mexican airlines.

17 Mr. Wides. You didn't have any idea at the time as to 18 what --

19 Mr. Sarno. Mexican airlines do not fly to Cuba. The 20 Cubans always flew their airplanes over. The Mexicans were 21 not flying.

22 Mr. Wides. So you understood this to be harrassment of 23 a Mexican Company or a Mexican national company, because of 24 Mexico's general relations with Cuba?

25 Mr. Sarno. General relations with Cuba, that is what I

1 understood it to be.

2 Mr. Wides. And you didn't have any information that the
3 Agency was aware of it beforehand?

4 Mr. Sarno. No, sir, I was never involved in it. I don't
5 recall ever seeing the reports or anything, because as I say,
6 I did an awful lot of travelling when I handled the ~~AMUTS~~.

7 Mr. Wides. When you discussed this with the people at 8 the Agency, is your testimony that you never heard any indica-
9 tion that the Agency was involved in that picketing?

10 Mr. Sarno. That is --

11 Mr. Wides. No one's ever suggested --

12 Mr. Sarno. Nobody ever suggested that the Agency was the 13 one who backed the people who did the picketing, no.

14 Mr. Wides. Now was there a time when ~~AMUTS~~ personnel who 15 had not moved outside of the Miami area were ever used or 16 involved in any Agency operations to your knowledge outside of 17 Miami, went on trips to do little jobs?

18 Mr. Sarno. ~~AMUTS~~ went out of Miami in order to do little 19 jobs --

20 Mr. Wides. I don't mean to Cuba.

21 Mr. Sarno. No, they went out of Miami to do little jobs
22 like for instance a specialist in say, sugar, would say come
23 out of Cuba through Spain and he'd end up in New York, and so
24 an ~~AMUTS~~ would go from Miami to New York to debrief him. Or we 25 would hear of somebody who knew of a well-known government

1 figure in Cuba who came out and he goes to Louisiana or he

3 house to debrief him. That is the only places I ever sent the 4 ~~AMOTS~~, or the ~~AMOTS~~ were ever sent.

5 Mr. Wides. What about with regard to surveillances or 6 breaking or entering?

7 Mr. Sarno. Never.

8 Mr. Wides. Mr. Sturbitz, do you know him?

9 Mr. Sarno. Sturbitz?

10 Mr. Wides. He was involved in economic warfare against 11 Castro.

12 Mr. Sarno. Sturblitz or Sturbitz?

13 Mr. Wides. Sturbitz.

14 Mr. Sarno. Yes, I know Sturbitz.

15 Mr. Wides. He testified he conducted some inquiries in 16 regard to the question of ~~AMOTS~~ involvement in possible illegal
17 activities, breaking and entering, surveillance and so forth.
18 Were you aware of those investigations?

19 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

20 Mr. Wides. Have you ever heard any charges or allegations
21 or suggestions that ~~AMOTS~~ personnel were involved in breaking
22 and entering in New York against groups like the Fair Play For 23 Cuba Committee, the Venceremos Brigade?

4 Mr. Wides. Do you know if any members of ~~AMOTS~~ may have
5 been used in these kinds of activities without your express
6 direction or not as part of its CIA task?

7 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

8 Mr. Wides. You never heard anything about it?

9 Mr. Sarno. Never heard.

10 Mr. Wides. In Florida also?

11 Mr. Sarno. In Florida also.

12 Mr. Wides. What about with regard to Puerto Rico and 13 ~~AMOTS~~ going there. Tell us about that.

14 Mr. Sarno. Well, there were several ~~AMOTS~~ who left Miami
15 and went over to Puerto Rico. There is a large Cuban community
16 in Puerto Rico with the attendant Cuban exile groups, and it
17 was the same thing as was going on in New York. They would 18 collect data on what these groups were doing, operations that
19 they were preparing, funds that they were collecting, et 20 cetera.

21 Mr. Wides. Did you see those reports as they came in?

5 Mr. DeMarco. I insist that you answer that.

6 Mr. Wides. Let's go off the record.

7 (Discussion off the record.)

8 Mr. DeMarco. For the record, I think I should explain to 9 you that we are highly interested in the sort of activities
10 that you were involved in in Cuba in 1960 and '61, but our 11 investigation has to a certain point been slowed down by the

13 being the case, and your insistence here on not answering
14 certain questions, will require us to simply have you come
15 back once we have cleared this up with your superiors at the
16 Agency and once they have been more forthcoming with documents
17 that were long ago requested about your activities.

18 I don't want to pursue just suspicions with you, I'd 19 rather talk to you about specific dates and facts.

20 We are going to pursue this very vigorously, and the 21 reason I'm interested in it is the gambling background, and
22 I would like to know your training in that area, your experience

1 Mr. Sarno. Sure, I'll tell you now. I was in a country --

4 I had in Miami and I don't think you're interested in what I
5 did before I went to Cuba. I tell you that nobody gave me any
6 instructions when I went to Cuba. I knew the Chief of Station
7 in Cuba and had known him for many years. He asked for me
8 specifically to come over for my abilities or qualifications
9 or experience. I climbed on an airplane and I went to Cuba.

10 I met the Chief of Station and he told me what he wanted
11 me to do.

12 Mr. DeMarco. What's his name?

13 Mr. Sarno. Jim Noel.

14 Mr. DeMarco. You met Mr. Noel and he told you what he 15 wanted you to do?

16 What did he tell you?

17 Mr. Sarno. He told me he wanted me to set up a stay-behind
18 net in Cuba because the situation was getting very bad and he 19 would like to set a stay-behind net up in Cuba.

20 Mr. Wides. This is with the break in Cuban relations?

21 Mr. Sarno. That's right, the pending break in diplomatic
22 relations and the rest of the things, and he wanted to set up
23 a net over in Cuba. And that is why he called for me.

24 Mr. DeMarco. Okay. So you --

25 Mr. Sarno. I went into Cuba and did not have a job. I had

2 I had to scrounge around in different ways. w had a brother-
3 in-law who was a professional gambler. When I was a kid, he
4 died. He taught me a little about gambling, so I used to go
5 to the black jack tables and I would win money here, there and 6 the other place.

7 Mr. DeMarco. Is this the hotel black jack tables
8 predominantly?

9 Mr. Sarno. No, they had black jack, roulette, they had 10 baccarat. I would go in there, I would make myself seen, they
11 would see that I was wearing good clothes and I was winning
12 money at the gambling tables and that's it.

13 I am not to be tied into any Syndicate or anything like

15 Mr. DeMarco. You knew no one?

16 Mr. Sarno. Nobody.

17 Mr. DeMarco. And your task then, which you learned on 18 arriving there, was to set up a network?

19 Mr. Sarno. To set up a network of agents in Cuba, yes.

20 Mr. DeMarco. So you started meeting people to do that?

21 Mr. Sarno. No.

22 We never meet people to do that.

4 Were any of those Americans?

5 Mr. Sarno. No, I never spotted any Americans. There
6 were two Americans over there who were already working, and they
7 were given to me to use as, to handle some of the other ones
8 that were involved.

9 Mr. DeMarco. Were they also involved in the same type of 10 cover you were, gambling?

11 Mr. Sarno. No. They were not in the same cover. As I
12 say, it was a cover provided by the Agency. It was a cover I
13 just naturally stumbled into since I was going to the 14 different casinos and I was winning money there and I could
15 pass myself off as a tourist-gambler.

16 Mr. DeMarco. These other two Americans you were talking
17 about, can you name them?

18 Mr. Sarno. Well, I'll give you the name. One I would
19 name, because I was not involved with the other one very long.
20 One's name is Emelio Rodriquez, but he is dead now.

21 Mr. DeMarco. He was an American?

22 Mr. Sarno. Yes, he died of a heart attack. And the 23 other was Julian.

24 Mr. DeMarco. Julian?

25 Mr. Sarno. Julian. I don't recall the last name, but he

1 only remained for about two months after I arrived.

2 Mr. DeMarco. What were these two people doing in Cuba
3 prior to the time they were turned over to you and you met
4 them?

5 Mr. Sarno. Collection of intelligence.

6 Mr. DeMarco. For the Agency?

7 Mr. Sarno. Yes, for the Agency. They were agents of the 8 Agency, as was I. But they were residing in Cuba.

9 Mr. DeMarco. At any time while you were in Cuba, for that
10 matter, at any time, did you become aware of any Agency
11 relationships with -- I'm going to use the term generically --
12 organized crime. Do you understand what I mean by that?

13 Mr. Sarno. Yes, certainly.

14 Mr. DeMarco. Whether or not organized, people who you've
15 read about in the paper, or you would consider to be involved
16 in that kind of business, are you aware of any relationships
17 between any Agency personnel in Cuba or elsewhere?

18 Mr. Sarno. None whatsoever.

19 Mr. DeMarco. During the period of time that you were in 20 the casinos, playing black jack and roulette and so forth, did
21 you get an opportunity to meet the people that were running
22 the casinos?

23 Mr. Sarno. No.

24 There was one big Swede in the Capri that because it was 25 close to where I was living I would go in there more often, and

1 as soon as I take off from my house, my apartment, I would
2 head over there and he was always seeing me in and offer me
3 drinks, but he was not a big wheel, he was just one of their 4 employees.

5 Mr. DeMarco. Where was this?

6 Mr. Sarno. At the Capri.

7 Mr. DeMarco. You say a big Swede?

8 Mr. Sarno. A big Swede, a blond-haired fellow. I didn't
9 even know his name, I'd just call him Swede.

10 Mr. DeMarco. Was he an American, or from Sweden?

11 Mr. Sarno. I think he was from America.

12 Mr. DeMarco. Were any of the people that you were 13 involved in handling in Cuba commercial or airline people?
14 Any airline people?

15 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

16 Mr. DeMarco. Did any of them have official Cuban govern-
17 ment positions?

18 Mr. Sarno. Yes.

19 Mr. DeMarco. They did?

20 Mr. Sarno. Some of them did, those were the ones that 21 you were looking for.

22 Mr. DeMarco. I don't have anything more at this time.

23 Mr. Wides. I am just a little puzzled by your testimony
24 regarding the ~~AMOTS~~ activity with regard to the Cuban community.

25 You indicated there was a CI capability, but if I understand

TOP SECRET

1 it, you said the only penetration was for purposes of finding
2 out about exile activities being planned against Cuba.

3 What was your testimony with regard to the use of ~~AMOTS~~
4 for members of the Cuban community who might come under
5 suspicion as possibly being intentionally or unintentionally --

6 Mr. Sarno. Suspect?

7 Mr. Wides. They were employed or they were not employed
8 in any way regarding checking on this?

9 Mr. Sarno. If you mean to say did they go around and 10 surveil them --

11 Mr. Wides. No. In any sense of counterintelligence
12 work, keeping their ears open and reporting back information
13 that might be of a suspicious nature.

14 Mr. Sarno. Well, to explain it, if an ~~AMOT~~ were to walk
15 into a place and see a friend and the friend says did you see
16 Juan, do you know Juan is here, and the ~~AMOT~~ himself knows and 17 the guy he's talking to that Juan used to work for the Internal 18 Security in Cuba, it's obvious. Where's he at, try to find 19 him.

20 And then they would go back to the files and dig out all
21 the information and in would come a report. Juan is in the 22 city of Miami and here's the stuff that we have on him. He
23 was a Castro collaborator, or he's a member of the security
24 forces over there, and everything.

25 Mr. Wides. So in general it would be fair to say -- and

1 I'm not trying to twist your testimony, I know you referred
2 to the basic purpose being to keep tabs on what was going on
3 so you would be aware of what Alpha-66 and groups like that
4 were planning, but in general, they were the eyes and ears of
5 the Station in the Cuban community and might come up with
6 counterintelligence information as well as the information
7 about the activities?

8 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir, yes, sir.

9 Mr. Wides. And as you understand it on a smaller scale,
10 this was also true with regards to the group in New York?

11 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

12 Mr. Wides. It was not simply to find out about Alpha-66,
13 but they would also report to the extent that they obtained
14 CI, that is counterintelligence information, about the Cubans
15 in New York?

16 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

17 Mr. Wides. What about with regards to the activities at 18 the UN? Any reports regarding UN activity relative to Cuba?

19 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

20 Mr. Wides. Was there a Cuban mission at the UN at this
21 time?

22 Mr. Sarno. Yes, sir.

23 Mr. Wides. And this group never relayed any information
24 regarding the Cuban mission or the people they contacted in 25 New York?

1 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

2 Mr. Wides. Why wouldn't they have been used for that
3 purpose?

4 Mr. Sarno. Because that is the Bureau's domain. We never
5 checked up on Cubans, the diplomats who were in the UN, nobody
6 was ever in contact with them, they never reported on any
7 Cuban diplomats in the UN or any of the Cubans seeing them or 8 anything.

9 Mr. Wides. Did you ever hear any stories whether they
10 were associated with ~~AMUTS~~ or not of Cuban exiles being 11 involved in any harrassment or surveillance of groups in 12 America friendly toward the Castro regime, such as the 13 Vincereamos Brigade and the Fair Play For Cuba Committee?

14 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

15 Mr. Wides. You were not aware of any activity by exiles?
16 I'm not talking about necessarily ~~AMUTS~~.

17 Mr. Sarno. Not of any activities.

18 Mr. Wides. You never heard anything?

19 Mr. Sarno. I never heard anything.

20 You're smiling. I'm telling you, I never heard anything.

21 Mr. Wides. What about Cubans in the late '60's after the 22 Vietnam War arose, being involved, Cuban exiles, in any
23 harrassment or surveillance of peace groups? What do you know
24 about that?

25 Mr. Sarno. Nothing.

1 Mr. Wides. Do you know anything about Cubans coming up
2 from Miami to be involved in surveillance or disruption of 3 any peace demonstrations in Washington?

4 Mr. Sarno. No, sir.

5 Mr. Wides. You never heard of that?

6 Mr. Sarno. I never heard of it. I know no ~~AMUTS~~ and I
7 never heard of any other Cubans.

8 Mr. Wides. Is there anything else that you -- have you
9 gotten a clear understanding of our lines of interest?

10 Mr. Sarno. Yes, I have.

11 Mr. Wides. -- would like to tell us, or any information --

12 Mr. Sarno. I have no information. I ran a group there
13 and we were never involved in anything which I would consider
14 to be illegal. They were working against the government of 15 Cuba.

16 Mr. Wides. I understand that.

17 Mr. Sarno. And that is where all of their energy went.

18 Mr. Wides. Who was it who would ask you to have members
19 of ~~AMUTS~~ detailed for missions elsewhere in America?

20 You described one where they would go to another city to 21 debrief somebody.

22 Mr. Sarno. I would --

23 Mr. Wides. How would you get those instructions? From 24 the Branch Chief?

25 Mr. Sarno. No, I wouldn't get the instructions. Since it

1 was a group and we were collecting economic and political
2 intel --

3 Mr. Wides. Where would you get the information that there
4 was a target of opportunity or someone to be debriefed in 5 another city?

6 Mr. Sarno. If the ~~AMUT~~ were to come up with the informa-
7 tion, if the ~~AMUT~~ were to come up with the information, he
8 would come in and report it and I would authorize him to go
9 into that city and find him, because the information could 10 come in many ways.

11 See, they were known as the Cuban municipalities and
12 operations in the city of Miami, and everybody that came out
13 from like a province or a state would register in it, and 14 as soon as they got information, the word would get around that 15 Joe Blow came in or something like that, and the word would get 16 back to the ~~AMUTS~~ and the ~~AMUTS~~ would say, well, we should 17 discuss with this fellow, and that's it.

18 Mr. Wides. You never got any requests for ~~AMUTS~~ personnel
19 to be made available for that kind of task from Washington?

20 Mr. Sarno. To debrief an individual?

21 Mr. Wides. Or to travel in general.

22 Mr. Sarno. Yes, yes, they would come down and say, we 23 would like a person because Washington would hear of an
24 individual and would like for him to go over and debrief.

25 Mr. Wides. What office?

1 Mr. Sarno. It would come out of the Cuban branch.

2 Mr. Wides. Cuban Operations Task?

3 Who would come down? Just a member of the staff?

4 Mr. Sarno. Come down? They usually came in a cable.

5 It said, you know, we understand such and such a person is 6 living at such and such an address and they worked at such and 7 such, suggest send an ~~AMCUT~~ out to debrief.

8 Mr. Wides. Did you have a particular point of contact
9 or several people who were particular points of contact for 10 you that would tend to be the ones sending you cables?

11 Mr. Sarno. No, I wasn't the Station Chief. The cables
12 come into the station, the Station Chief would pass it to me
13 or to the Branch Chief, and that would be it.

14 Mr. Wides. Okay.
